GEO. BRENNAN ENTERS SENATE RACE AS A WET

'Referendum on Dry Act,' His Defi.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

George E. Brennan, Democratic national committeeman, jumping into the race for United States senator last night, set up his candidacy as "a direct referendum on the local Democratic party of the local Democracy at the Chicago election." Before a clamorous meeting of the local Democracy at the Chicago election, he said he would run on two main issues: repeal or modification of the Volstead act, and home rule for Chicago and downstate cities.

As the political talent views it, with the liquor question now brought into the open, Illinois becomes the center of the movement to liberalize the Volstead act in the interests of temperance and sobriety.

"This election will be a referendum on the Volstead act," said Mr. Brennan, while his listeners roared their approval.

Mr. Brennan's speech set for a spectacular and picturesque battle such as Illinois politics has not seen in a dozen years. It is not to be any check turning contest—Mr. Brennan, who has been in politics long enough to know his way about without a guide book, emphatically declared his intention to make head at any politician or other candidate who may arise with derogatory remarks. The head cracking would go on as long as things were up.

By way of a sample, Mr. Brennan, in making his attack towards his political enemies, got in his first shot, practice on Senator Charles S. Deneen.

"I see by the papers," he remarked, "as aside from his prepared address, that the chaste and vigorous Senator Deneen is outraged by bipartisan alliances."

"I have you Deneen, Deneen save me!"

"When the devil was sick, the devil a monk would be. When the devil was well, the devil a monk was he."

Challenge to B. G. A.

The Democracy fairly glowed with enthusiasm over this, and became more and more convinced that Mr. Brennan was not in any way a great willinger to let it sink in, to wrap up his campaign with the better Government, which has already "attacked me on the score of bipartisan alliances."

Mr. Brennan said he had made his contacts at times and glad to let it sink in, to wrap up his campaign with the better Government, which has already "attacked me on the score of bipartisan alliances."

I. C. SUBURBAN HITS MICHIGAN CENTRAL IN CITY

Cars Burn; Many Are Buried in Wreck.

Three men were killed and more than twenty were injured early this morning when a southbound Illinois Central suburban train and a Michigan Central freight, both moving at high speed, crashed head-on at 68th street.

An open switch which threw the suburban train into the path of the north-bound train.

The engines and the first car of each train crumpled into masses of tangled wreckage. Passengers on the suburban train—those not too seriously injured—fought their way through a maze of shattered glass and splintered wood to the open air. The wreckage took fire but the flames soon were extinguished.

THE DEAD

EDWARD E. BENJAMIN, 6310 Hooper avenue, conductor of the Illinois Central train.

THOMAS GRAYGIER, 3302 South Racine avenue, fireman of the Illinois Central train.

OLE NELSON, Wheaton, Ill.

THE INJURED

Among the injured taken to the Illinois Central hospital were the following:

Charles Lindgren, 35, electrician, 11 West 11th place.

Richard Dykstra, 38, shipping clerk, 11514 Myrtle avenue.

Richard Dykstra.

M. C. Tobin, 6233 Kenwood avenue, engineer of the I. C. train.

E. A. Groth, 1931 West 21st street.

William F. Sedell, 14513 Burlington avenue, Harvey.

C. W. Samota, Hazel Crest.

Frank Miller, 111 Hammond avenue, Mount Greenwood.

Phil Callom, Hazel Crest.

Ralph Bedoes, Homewood.

W. G. Fiegel.

James Williamson, 11333 Watt avenue.

Conductor Benjamin died shortly after he had been dragged from the wreckage and was being taken to the Illinois Central hospital. Fireman Graygier was found crushed to death under his engine house after the accident. Yesterday was his thirty-third birthday. Nelson died in the hospital after his crushed leg had been amputated.

Search for the Injured.

Calls for assistance were sent to the police and to nearby hospitals. A few minutes after the wreck occurred firemen and police were searching the ruins of the suburban train for victims who might have been pinned by fallen beams and unable to extricate themselves.

At the hospital it was said that twenty injured had been taken there, but the police declared the number who were seriously hurt might reach thirty.

Engineers Leap for Life.

Engineer Willis Chapman and Fireman John Ruti of the Michigan Central train were uninjured. Both leaped from the cab in time to escape the crash. Conductor John W. Boyce of the same train was reported slightly injured.

Firemen headed by Chief Andrews of truck company No. 18 made a thorough search of the debris on the track and reported two hours after finding the body of Graygier that there were no others in the wreckage.

Officials at the hospital declined to give any information concerning the condition of those hurt.

The point at which the wreck occurred is on an elevated rail. Two towermen who were near the scene were questioned by the police about the accident. They are Otto Nitche, 7807 Ellis avenue, and William Cunningham, 7515 Avalon avenue.

Witnesses Tell of Crash.

According to the story told by witnesses, the freight train was on track 4 and the passenger train on track 5. The suburban train crossed over to the north-bound track while the engines were close together. Engineer Chapman told the police that the signals gave him a clear right of way.

Railroad officials rushed a wreck train to clear the tracks.

The suburban train left the Randolph street station at 11:50 p. m., bound for Madison and carrying after-theater crowds which thinned out considerably by the time 68th street was reached.

HUNDREDS SEE NOVICE INJURED IN DASH TO FIRE

Howard Fisher, 24 years old, a novice fireman attached to engine company No. 55, was possibly fatally injured yesterday afternoon when he fell from the engine at Diversey parkway and Lincoln avenue. The apparatus was rounding the corner on the way to a fire at 522 Fulberton avenue when the accident occurred.

Fisher's skull was fractured. Other members of the fire company continued to the fire and the injured man was picked up by Harry Murawski, 5301 Berenice avenue, and Henry Steffen, 1761 Grand avenue. He was taken to the Alexian Brothers' hospital.

Hundreds of pedestrians and motorists saw Fisher, who had been a fireman only two months, slip from his seat and hurtle through the air. The victim lives at 1305 Winnemac avenue and is the son of Richard P. Fisher, a retired policeman.

Warrants Issued for Arrests.

Warrants were issued by H. W. Penny, a justice of the peace, today and will be served in the morning. Capt. C. G. Porcher, coast guard commander, acknowledged responsibility for delivering the men, bonds were fixed by Justice Penny at $5,000 for the engine and $2,500 for the enlisted men.

Nine federal men engaged in war on liquor traffic are now under state charges of either manslaughter or aggravated assault and robbery in this section of Florida. Four agents who raided suspects at Key West last week are now awaiting trial for assault and for robbing their victims.

Showdown Trial Planned.

"Florida is interested to know if liquor violations justify summary executions," Attorney Bart A. Riley, who examined witnesses before the coroner's jury, declared. "And we will take this means of finding out."

"There is something wrong when law officers take alive men charged with murder, highway robbery, treason, arson, rape, or counterfeiting, but shoot and kill suspects when the law is involved. The Volstead law does not provide a death penalty—yet. Even if it did, a trial would be more conventional."

"We will have a trial in Florida and ascertain what special rights, if any, prohibition agents have in regard to taking human life."

Rum Chaser Crew Faces Slaying Trial

Miami, Fla., March 2.—(Special.)—In an attempt to establish a principle that violations of the liquor laws "are not capital offenses, punishable by death without trial," a coroner's jury today held a coast guard engine and a crew of his crew for the crime of manslaughter.

The jury returned its verdict after listening to a score of witnesses who testified that D. C. ("Red") Shannon, rum runner, was shot last Wednesday night through the back, while his hands were raised above his head in token of surrender, and after he had shouted: "Don't shoot; I surrender."

to the commission's own finding, was estimated to result in a saving to the transportation system of the nation of more than six million dollars a year.

The decision of the commission will not affect the control of the Van Sweringen-Nickel Plate interests of the Chesapeake and Ohio and Hocking Valley. These properties have been operated under Van Sweringen control for more than two years. The Van Sweringens do not have a majority control of the Erie and Pere Marquette properties, so far as the records of the commission show.

Failure of the commission to indicate what it would consider fair and reasonable terms for the acquisition of control of the Chesapeake and Hocking stock, it was believed to night, might lead the Van Sweringens to decide not to make another offer to propose a different set of terms and conditions.

New in Partial Control.

Denial of the application leaves the Van Sweringens still in partial control of the five companies a result of their acquisition of stock, but they cannot unify the operation of the properties as they would have been able to do had the application been approved.

The case was decided by eight of the eleven members of the commission. Commissioners Hail, Taylor and Woodcock not participating in the case. No reason was assigned for their non-participation, but Commissioner Woodcock announced when he became a member of the commission that he would not participate in the case, because he had been a director of the Pere Marquette. Commissioner Taylor only recently assumed his duties as a commissioner.

Lewis Is Lone Dissenter.

Commissioner Lewis wrote the majority opinion and Commissioner Eastman filed a concurring opinion.

Commissioner Lewis of Indiana was the only one of the commissioners to dissent.

"After much analysis the commission, dealing with the question of public interest, finds that it would be served by the consolidation proposed," Commissioner Lewis said. "But private interests and what is found to be defects in the financial plan block the way, and the petition is denied. I concur that the finding that the public interest as declared by congress would be served. I further join in the thought that the equities of certain minority stockholders have not received full recognition. I do not, however, favor denial of the petition."

Same Issue Neglected.

Commissioner Lewis declared it would certainly be within the commission's scope of its proper activity to indicate what would bring the proposal, found to be in the public interest, into line for its approval. He said the presumption is created that the terms and conditions and financial structure were revised to a satisfactory state, not indicated, the proposed consolidation would be approved. The commission had not passed on a number of issues which were raised, such as the allegations of a community of interests between the Van Sweringens and the New York Central, and various banking houses and trust companies.

"The record on this one issue is very ample and it seems to me that we should make a clear cut finding on this vital matter," Commissioner Lewis said.

Should Lead Way to Merger.

"Proponents of the proposition will be entirely free to make their case after such revision as they may think meets the objections on which denial is based. It would, however, be much better, it seems to me, for us to retain control of the matter and to lead the way to the realization of those things which we find meet the definition of public interest set up by congress in its declaration of a national railroad policy."

Sound Business Conditions Bring Joy to the President

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., March 2.—[Special.]—The President of the United States is happy about business—in spite of the speculative slump in Wall Street.

He and the cabinet today took a survey of the general business situation and found it sound and sunny. From all his informants the President received assurances that production is going forward briskly and that orders for new goods are coming in handsomely.

The situation so thoroughly satisfies the administration that its spokesman made the reigning prosperity the leading topic of the regular Tuesday press conference.

As to the management of the government's business, the President wants the shipping board and the Emergency Fleet corporation separated, the latter to have an executive head so that those who wish to buy ships may find a responsible chief with whom to deal.

Regional representation on the shipping board, the President thinks, is right, but he does emphatically feel that the operation of the fleet should come under a single head. Whether that head be to be responsible to congress or to the President of the United States, Mr. Coolidge did not care. The only thing he does care about is efficient management. On that he was decisive.

On the proposal to do away with the short session of congress, the President declines to commit himself because he thinks it possible a matter for congress to decide for itself. It affects congress rather than the executive, and so decision is up to congress.

acquisitions and control were just and reasonable. It said the responsibility resting on it to subject the entire transaction to the closest scrutiny was particularly grave, and a corresponding responsibility rested on the applicants to make a record which would dispense all the facts.

"One of the proponents of this plan," the commission said, "testified that 'if we could not control the properties to the extent necessary to assure continuity of policy we did not want to be interested in them.' Through their control of 80 per cent of the voting stock of the Van Sweringen company, a personal holding corporation, the Van Sweringens now control 84.11 per cent of the voting stock of the Nickel Plate, but they control directly or indirectly only 23.85 per cent of all the voting stock of the companies affected by their proposal. But under their plan they will directly or indirectly control, without purchasing a single additional share, 60.33 per cent of the voting stock of the new company and thus will effectively control its management and operation."

The commission said that under the plan the Van Sweringens would control this large transportation system without the necessity of owning an actual majority of the voting stock, much less all the stock.

"We cannot escape the conclusion that the plan was arranged with the intention of keeping control in the hands of its proponents, even though their interest is a minority one in fact," the commission said. "Such an arrangement is not in accord with the intention of keeping control in the hands of the public. The Nickel Plate is the only railroad of importance in the country in which preferred stockholders do not have the right to vote, and now it is proposed to extend this feature to over $155,000,000 of new stock of a company comparable with the New York Central, Pennsylvania, and Baltimore and Ohio."

The commission declared it was inimical to the public to strip stockholders of their voting power.

Oppose Trust Agreement.

The commission condemned a trust agreement entered into by O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen, under which the commission said the Van Sweringens

BOOTLEGGERS PEDDLING FIFTY CENT DRINKS IN CITY HALL, JUDGE TOLD

Bootleggers have become so numerous in the city hall and the county building that Chief Deputy Sheriff Charles Peters yesterday made it his business to appear before Judge Francis Borrelli to testify against John Lawler, who was arraigned on charges of peddling alcoholic beverages about the corridors of the buildings.

"He is only one of a number," Peters said. "I'm always stumbling over them in the hallways. They carry little bottles containing one drink which they sell for fifty cents."

Lawler, arrested Monday in the city hall, denied that he was selling "nootch." Judge Borrelli continued the case to investigate it.

may divert themselves of all beneficial interests in the Van Sweringen company and still retain voting control of the new Nickel Plate company without ownership of a share of stock therein.

The commission found that the terms on which the Van Sweringens proposed to take in the dissolving C. & O. and Hocking stock were not just and reasonable.

Van Sweringens Delay Comment.

Cleveland, O., March 2.—[AP]—No statement was forthcoming from the Van Sweringens on the rejection by the interstate commerce commission of their proposed merger of five railroads into a greater Nickel Plate system. After they had been notified by the Associated Press of the decision they went into conference.

BRITISH EXPERT CALLS AVIATION VITAL U. S. NEED

Mal. Gen. William Seton Branker, director of civil aviation for Great Britain, visited the air mail field and other places of interest here yesterday, and last night was the guest of honor at a dinner at the Chicago club, attended by leading citizens.

While refusing to comment on William Mitchell's campaign for a separate air force, the English aviation expert said Britain's separate air department had been proved successful.

America's vast boundaries make the promotion of civil aviation a vital necessity, Gen. Branker declared, pointing out that England, with her comparatively small territory and excellent railroads, had little need of aviation for commercial purposes.

AMERICA LACKS SPIRITUAL AIR, LECTURER SAYS

American civilization was termed "an organized appetite for material things" by Syed Hossein, scholar and philosopher from India, at Temple Shalom last evening.

"Industrialism is blind to spiritual values," he said. "It has lost touch with the finer aspects of a true civilization such as we have in the Orient. America is both superior and inferior to older cultures. She has something to give, but a great deal to receive. She must learn to have appreciation for those finer things we reverse, which are not a part of her present industrialism."

COLOR—THE MEASURE OF CHIC

The girl of today, as well as tomorrow (see I am Scandalous) has a mania for color. This desire is even present in her selection of gloves. The most exciting hair I've noticed was of biscuit colored kid with cuffs of coral—plenty chic with colored clothes. $19.95. Chicago—First Floor.

FROM PETTICOATS TO PURSES

The fashionables of France simply couldn't stand seeing the Provencese peasant women's petticoats and aprons, so they quilted them and made them into hand bags. Paris fell for the idea and now we offer copies of them in Satin and Chintz, handbags on American frames. We regret that George White did not design the clasp. $10-$12-$18.50. Bags—First Floor.

THRILLING AS "THE DOVE"

—and colorful as "The Student Prince," are these new in the new Astor-like shades of green, blue, and pink. Offer on afternoon on the scene, we know that the darker tones are in favor for daytime—but according to two young dukes who were in yesterday, dark, dark grey, mauve, taupe and black are the latest in chic for evening wear. CHICAGO'S PLEA FOR U. S. PROBE DIES A-BORNING

Clean Your Own House, Senators Warn City.

(Special Tribune Staff Service.)
Washington, D. C., March 3.—[Special.]—Chicago's politically dirty linen was not to be laundered in a senate investigating committee, as urged in a letter presented to the senate yesterday by the Chicago Chamber of Commerce.

The senate determined today when the immigration committee, by a vote of 10 to 9, refused to accept the committee's allegations that Chicago politicians are in league with organized crime and that the city is a haven for a combination of lawless and protected vice.

The committee listened while John T. Lee, dean of the John Marshall Law school and acting president of the Better Government association, presented political conditions in Chicago. He asserted that everything in that city was bedeviled with politics and that all law, even that of the United States, was ignored.

Senator King (Iowa) took advantage of the charges to make a few statements about Chicago and then told Lee to take the following message back to the people of Chicago:

"The people of Chicago," he said, "must clean their own house and ask the federal government to do so."

Lee said that the Chicago police department is a political machine and that the city is a haven for organized crime.

King mentioned Small, who had been indicted and adjudged to have withheld $100,000 from public funds. "It is the fault of the decent people of Chicago if they do not have a government," he said.

Lee had reiterated the charges made in his petition that crime conditions were due to political cliques in Chicago and a coalition of political factors for the control of the 46,000 municipal and county offices. Senator King thought the name of Gov. Small was the best.

LEGION UPHOLDS FIGHT TO DEPORT ALIEN GUNMEN

Judge Borrelli Urges Service Men to Act.

American Legionnaires yesterday promised their support to the campaign now under way to rid Chicago of gangsters through deportation.

To-night a meeting of the Cook County Association of Legion posts is called to protest against the pending bill in Congress which would let innumerable aliens into this country.

The police department, meanwhile, was doing its share, bringing in alien after alien for examination by the special force of deportation agents sent here from Washington on orders of President Coolidge and Secretary of Labor Davis.

Judge Borrelli Urges Action.
Judge Francis Borrelli took the lead yesterday at a meeting of the Frederick W. Galbraith Jr. post of the American Legion. "Let the American Legion take its part of duty as it did in 1917-1918 and help rid Chicago of the enemy alien," the alien outlaw, the greatest menace of the city," urged the judge, whose parents came from northern Italy.

"We have in Chicago now enemy aliens as dangerous as the ones we had during the war. The wholesale slaughter by men who are not and who do not want to become good Americans must be stopped. Let's send them back. Let's get the rats out of our basements."

Howard P. Savage, past state commander and now national committee man of the Legion, voiced the opinion that "America is no place for these murderers."

A resolution was then adopted unanimously urging congress to do its utmost in providing for adequate deportation assistance here.

Protest Lifting of Bars.
Tonight's meeting will concern the proposal to permit almost indiscriminate entry into this country of relatives of citizens. It has been feared that if the bill passed, 850,000 Italians and Sicilians would be eligible to come here. The Legion favors retention of the present law, which authorizes only the wife or unmarried child of an American citizen to come to America from a foreign country in excess of the quota.

Two Italians, both known to the police to be gangsters, were released after being questioned by immigration authorities yesterday. They are Pete Cosano, 217 South Racine avenue, and Phillip Gnofo, 1119 South Racine avenue. Gnofo, who had been in the United States more than ten years, Gnofo was a friend of Orazio Tropea, and has been a well known character in gangland for many years.

Detective bureau squads, led by Sgt. John McVeigh, raided a poolroom at 8229 Burley avenue last night and arrested twelve Mexicans, who will be turned over to the immigration authorities for deportation.

SAID TO TEACH WEDLESS NEST, PRINCIPAL QUILTS

Shannon City, Ind., March 2.—[Special.]—After the school board had charged him with teaching theories of natural wedlock, without marriage ceremony, in the agricultural class of the consolidated school here, Guy Stockdale, principal of the school, resigned today.

Parents told the board that Stockdale had informed his agricultural class that in years to come natural wedlock would be a common occurrence and that he had advocated other ultra-modern theories.

C. E. Finch, chairman of the board, today said that "Mr. Stockdale was unsatisfactory, that was all." He admitted, however, that the teaching of wedlock without license was the prime cause of the acceptance of Mr. Stockdale's resignation.

WRIT FOR SCOTT'S FREEDOM BEATS HIS ARRIVAL HERE

Attorneys Start Battle in Murder Extradition.

Even before he has reached the jurisdiction of the Illinois courts a writ of habeas corpus was issued yesterday, calling for the appearance of a man said to be Robert Scott, brother of Russell Scott, before Judge Walter P. Steffen, at 10 o'clock this morning.

Scott, who was found in San Quentin, Cal., penitentiary under the name of John Redding, is scheduled to reach Chicago at 4:30 o'clock this morning in custody of Richard Prendergast, chief investigator for State's Attorney Crowe.

Gov. Richardson of California at first had refused to turn Scott over to the Illinois authorities because he said he feared the alleged slayer of Joseph Maurer, clerk in the City Hall pharmacy, would never be punished in Chicago.

Attorneys Obtain Writ.
That the governor might have had some ground for his fears appeared late yesterday when Attorney William Scott Stewart, who saved Russell Scott from the hangman by a last minute insanity plea, appeared before Judge Steffen and had the habeas corpus writ issued.

"The petition we filed says that a man held as Robert Scott and who was arrested under the name of John Redding is the prisoner to be produced in court," said Attorney Stewart. "We are not so sure that the man is Robert Scott."

The attorney admitted that Scott's father had been to see him recently and had expressed doubts that the prisoner is his son. The father is expected to be in court this morning and it is believed a fight over the identity of the prisoner may develop.

Hope to Thwart Prosecutor.
Attorney Stewart admitted that his main purpose in filing the writ was to have the prisoner, if it is Scott, taken from the hands of the prosecutor, placed in custody of the sheriff. If this is done it will thwart the state from obtaining any incriminating statements from the prisoner.

TALESMAN IN MURDER TRIAL LACKS COURAGE TO INFLICT HANGING

"I doubt if I would have the moral courage to impose the death penalty," Maurice Landis, 447 East 63d street, a chemist, made this admission yesterday while being questioned by Assistant State's Attorney William H. McSwiggen as a prospective juror in the Scialli-Asseini murder trial before Judge William V. Brothers. Landis had previously said he believed the death penalty proper. In three weeks only eight jurors have qualified in this case.

"The fault is with the business man, who is too busy to serve," said Chief Justice Thomas J. Lynch in discussing the difficulty in getting jurors in this and other cases.

"As a rule we get two classes of men willing to serve on important juries. First, we have the man who is out of a job or who cannot hold steady employment and has few responsibilities. Second, there is a small percentage of hard working citizens whose employers allow them the difference between their regular wage and the jury pay."

"The business man will always find a way out of serving. If a few business men will make a little sacrifice, we will get better jurors."

William A. Lockwood, credit manager of Darling & Co., fertilizer, 493 South Ashland avenue, was reprimanded by Judge Brothers yesterday for attempting to keep Charles E. McKibben, one of his employees, out of jury service.

Lockwood said that McKibben was his son. The father is expected to be in court this morning and it is believed a fight over the identity of the prisoner may develop.

GEORGE BRENNAN OUT FOR SENATE AS RINGING WET

Democratic Chief Keen
for Great Battle.

Democratic celebrities inclined to welcome will tour the state. George intends to charter a special train and make himself comfortable while touring the downstate regions. His first excursion is to be along the Alton from Chicago to East St. Louis.

A full state ticket was presented. Up to the time George decided to go, candidates were hard to find, but when he made his intentions known they flocked in thick. The state ticket is: STATE TREASURER—Maj. Samuel L. Nelson, Peoria.

CLERK SUPREME COURT—John A. Loran Jr., Elgin.

SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—Alexander W. Jamieson, Chicago.

CONGRESSMAN AT LARGE—Frank J. Wines, Joliet; Charles J. Karch, East St. Louis, who was a weak leader in the assembly.

See Cook County Victory.
The Democrats regard the Brennan candidacy as insuring the election of their ticket in Cook county. In 1914, when Roger Sullivan ran for senator, although he was defeated by the downstate vote in certain counties where the religious issue was raised, he got enough of a majority in Chicago and Cook county to drag in all of the Democratic county candidates.

With Mr. Brennan in the race, the talent is expected that it will be easy to raise a large campaign fund that will enable the Democrats to rally forth and make the far cry.

It's the second time in a quarter century and more that an old tradition has been broken. For many years it has been the custom for the big Democratic boss in Chicago to sit behind the scenes and run things without running for office himself. Roger Sullivan shattered the old habit in 1914 when he ran for senator.

Follow New York's Technique.
Mr. Brennan, in running, so the talent surmises, is applying the newest technique of politics as practiced in New York, where the big men in Democracy are those in office—Gov. Al Smith and Mayor "Jimmy" Walker. It's the first time George has run for office himself except once, and that was way back in 1912, when he was a school teacher at Bradwood, and ran for recorder of Will county in a hopeless contest to help Alheid.

In sewing the seed on the liquor and home rule issues the Democrats expect to find much fertile ground downstate, especially in the industrial centers, where population has grown until communities are denied a full measure of representation at Springfield as is Chicago. The regions around Springfield, Elgin, Danbury, Rockford, Rock Island, East St. Louis, Alton, Danville, and other industrial spots and the mining sections in the La Salle district and in Egypt they regard as especially favorable ground.

Brennan Announces Platform and Slams His Critics

The formal statement from George J. Brennan, announcing his candidacy for the United States senate, is as follows:

"In response to urgent requests from all parts of this state, as well as from Cook county, I have decided to become a candidate for United States senator.

"Running for office has never been among my duties, office holding never one of my ambitions. To become a candidate now entails sacrifices of time, energy, and business, as well as of personal preferences, that are not easy to face.

"A time comes to most of us in our lives when obligations to party and associates, to say nothing of the larger public interest, must outweigh personal preferences. My associates in Democratic party affairs are, apparently, convinced, and so have convinced me, that my time to recognize these obligations has arrived.

"First Citizenship First.

"My candidacy will be an appeal to the fundamental common sense of Illinois. Ours is more than a one party government. We operate governmentally on the theory that when through corruption or otherwise, the party in power fails to serve the public interest, enough of us will place ourselves above party to turn it out, citizenship above party to turn it out, citizenship above party to turn it out.

"In Cook county the Democratic party has acted emphatically upon two great issues, one a national and the other a state issue. They are: (1) repeal or modification of the Volstead act and (2) home rule for Chicago and other Illinois cities. On both issues my stand, without reservation, is expressed in the platform adopted by the Cook county Democratic convention on Feb. 7, 1926. On both issues I have some record of performance.

"All human experience proves the utility of attempting to regulate morals by statute. Volsteadism is but another example. Administration of this act has been in the hands of its overworked staffs.

Two Boys, Both 19, Held for Attack on Girl, 14

Joseph Kato, 237 Augusta street, and Edward Korbil, 1388 Dickson street, both 19 years old, were held to the grand jury yesterday by Judge Alagretti of the Boys' court after a 14 year old girl testified that they took her to a clubroom in their neighborhood, where she was attacked by the pair and three other youths.

Influenza Sweeps Russia;
27,000 Cases in Moscow

MOSCOW, March 2.—An epidemic of influenza is sweeping Russia, there being 27,000 registered cases in Moscow alone. All unemployed physicians and nurses have been summoned to the hospitals to relieve the overworked staffs.

Friends, with all the resources of the federal government at their command. The results are failure and national scandal. The whole country rings with the evidence.

Destroying Respect for Law.
"Volsteadism is destroying respect for all law and government. It is corrupting the lives of boys and girls alike. It is a cancer, to be cured in the only way a cancer can be cured, not by pills and plasters, but by cutting out the malignant growth before it eats away the vitals of its victim. The sensible, the honest thing to do is to modify or repeal this unenforceable statute and restore to the states their rights in this field of purely domestic legislation.

"My election will assure congressional action upon this national evil. It will signify more than just another vote on the senate roll call. As my friend, Gov. Al Smith of New York, said, a great majority of the members of the national house and senate have dry throats and wet bellies. When Illinois votes in favor of ending the disgrace of Volsteadism, as I believe it will, the federal law makers will no longer be afraid to vote their convictions.

"Home rule for Chicago and other Illinois cities is as issue so clearly right that it ought not to be debatable. It is indefensible that this great city of three million people should not be permitted to legislate for itself and govern itself in affairs of purely local concern. Deaf to the people of Chicago of representation, in the state legislature, to that of residents in other parts of the state is equally indefensible.

Expulsion His "Bipartisanship."
"My candidacy will be attacked on the score of 'bipartisanship.' The self-named Better Government association has already attacked me on that. In putting citizenship above

"I have had bipartisan contacts in politics and I invite examination of the record.

"I acknowledge bipartisanship when the judiciary of Cook county was threatened in 1921. Ten Republican judges of long and approved service were denied reappointment by the democratic faction of their party. In the face of much opposition in my party, I had something to do with placing those ten Republican judges on the twenty circuit judges and one superior court judge, all of approved service, were elected by an overwhelming majority.

"Bombed Own Homes for Notoriety."
"When Gov. Small introduced a tax commission bill that would have destroyed local control in the assessment of property for taxation I again had bipartisan contacts. The result was the defeat of that iniquitous measure.

"In the last election I was a party to a 'bipartisan alliance' against the reelection of State's Attorney Crowe and to which the Better Government association was also a party. I will give the details if the Better Government association desires.

"In all my years of political activity I have never hesitated to act bipartisanship whenever good citizenship called for it. As a matter of fact, this 'bipartisan alliance' attack in the name of the Better Government association is fomented by two individuals who are so eager for notoriety that they have caused their own homes to be bombed in an effort to attain it.

"Having become a candidate for United States senator, I shall do the best I can to win. My appeal is to the common sense patriotism of Illinois—to the citizenship that loves liberty and hates hypocrisy—to the men and women who can look facts squarely in the face and vote without party prejudice for the good of all when they go to the polls election day."

JOHN M. FLYNN'S DEATH IN CANAL CALLED ACCIDENT

A coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict of accidental drowning after investigating the death of John M. Flynn, 56 years old, 540 South Euclid avenue, Oak Park, missing since Christmas eve, whose body was found in the canal at Lockport earlier in the day. Identification was made by means of a letter found in his clothing signed by G. H. Schaefer, advertising manager of Marshall Field & Co.

Mr. Flynn had been employed in the office of the company for twenty-five years and had risen to head of the accounting department. His business associates said he had been in ill health for several months and just before his disappearance had been acting strangely.

IDENTITY MURDER JUST SWORN.
Mrs. Minnie Baker, 4100 South Ashland avenue, will be the principal witness today against Fred Williams, 28, and Owen Oswald, 27, on trial before Judge Harry J. Miller for the murder of Frank Yella. He was shot and killed Feb. 26 during the robbery of Mrs. Baker's restaurant.

Home is where the Hart is Among the home-owning people of this community, we find a steadily increasing number whose thoughts of oil heating turn naturally to the Hart Oil Burner.

Not merely because it is automatic, convenient, cleanly—almost any standard burner is that—

But because day in and day out, when the first frost nips the ripening grapes or later when sub-zero blasts turn running streams to solid ice, the Hart Oil Burner is always at work—with mathematical certainty. The utmost in reliability.

Built by people to whom fine craftsmanship is a habit of 35 years' standing, this burner brings to you every advantage of oil heating in its perfected form. All you need to do is set the thermostat.

Harry Klein, Quack, May Be Freed on Probation

Harry Klein, charged with poisoning a physician for eight years, and over whom a great fuss was raised by state officials, was granted a continuance yesterday by Judge Joseph L. McCarty so that the judge might decide about freeing Klein on probation.

Klein's attorney, Julius Reynolds, thought a full continuance might endanger his client because of his weak heart. Some 4,000 prescriptions issued by Klein, including many for dope, were presented in court.

MOSLEYS VISION EARLY SOCIALIST RULE IN BRITAIN

But Are Not So Hopeful of Victory in U. S.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.
Lord Oswald Mosley is just 36 years old, is in English Socialism. Each year to carry the other to victory of the coming election to parliament. British Socialism, the Comrades Mosley, Cynthia and Oswald, pointed out last night at the dinner which the Chicago Socialists gave them at the Morrison hotel, has only to look ahead, and with the naked eye, spot a victory, possibly at the next election.

But American Socialism, still the minority in a "small, persecuted minority" will have to put on a pretty good pair of long distance spurs to win a victory.

And yet it's not so bad. See Bright Future for Party. "For there's no stopping Socialism's progress ahead," Comrade Oswald proclaimed. "And our English victory will buck up in case you're downhearted, which of course you're not." Comrade Oswald's wife, Comrade Cynthia, supplemented.

Between the two of them, they started out a clear path from the past and into the future of the future, for their party, Victor Brown, Wisconsin's Socialist congressman, Kurt Marx, grandson of Karl Marx, and John Tucker, chairman of the meeting, and George Kirkwood, secretary of the national Socialist party of America, were among the 300 comrades who cheered the speeches.

"With the inevitable swing of the pendulum," said Lady Cynthia, "when the Conservative party goes out, it's the Labor and Socialist party which will take its place."

U. S. Socialism Still Flowering. "Yes in America are in the pioneer stage. It's grand to be a pioneer, but it's awfully hard work."

As a balance wheel, perhaps, to some of the more exuberant oratory of Victor Brown and Mrs. Florence Hanson, president of the Chicago High School Teachers' federation, came Capt. Mosley's warning words.

"We Socialists who have fought so long in the minority," he besought his comrades, "must take care lest we develop a minority psychology of apathy. When victory comes we must translate the general into the particular. Above all, our party needs constructive work, constructive thinking."

The Mosleys left the banquet for the night in Detroit where they will stay tomorrow. Yesterday they divided their time between a trip to the stockyards and a visit with Dr. Cyril Larkin and William Glavin, two officers in the 19th century during the world war, who were arrested by Lady Cynthia Curson at the hospital at Lingfield, Surrey.

HEAD OF HOUSE BANK COMMITTEE HELD BANKRUPT

Towanda, Pa., March 2.—(AP)—Representative L. T. McFadden of Canton, Pa., chairman of the house committee on banking and currency, has been named defendant in bankruptcy proceedings filed here. His property would have been sold by the sheriff today but for a restraining order from Federal Judge Albert Johnson.

The absence of Mr. McFadden while attending congressional duties was declared by McFadden's counsel, to have been responsible for the present financial difficulties. Mr. Rhone said Mr. McFadden had to intrust many of his business affairs to others while he was working to obtain the passage of amendments to the national banking laws. He also stated that Mr. McFadden had spent nearly $50,000 in his dispute and pending litigation with John Skelton Williams, controller of the currency under the Wilson administration.

The bankruptcy proceedings were brought against the congressman as an individual and trading as the McFadden Furniture company by the Baker-Mathews Lumber company of Memphis, Tenn.; Chicago Lumber and Coal company, St. Louis, Mo., and the Boston Varnish company, Boston, Mass.

The bankruptcy petition alleged that McFadden and his company owe debts of more than $50,000.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhance its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't say gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for only 75 cents.

This is merely the oldest time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing it through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Public Utilities Hit.

Early trading gave little hint of the smash at the close of the day. Just after midday a wave of selling struck the public utility issues, which have been the special objects of attention in a series of long months of speculation based on the remarkable increased earnings of these properties, of mergers and stock dividends. The big wave took them under and sharp losses were sustained.

Then the selling spread, first to the motor shares and finally to the market as a whole, in what will probably go down in market memory as one of the most drastic hours of liquidation in stock exchange history.

In every commission house nervous men hung over the tape, watched paper profits melt and gave up visions of new summer homes, vacations in Europe, new automobiles.

Tonight the buildings of lower Manhattan gleamed with millions of lights as hard pressed brokerage and bank employees struggled to bring their books up to date and clear the day's transactions.

Mention Jesse Livermore.

Many in the street were inclined to look to Jesse Livermore, one of the most powerful market operators of the present generation, in their search for an explanation of the dramatic collapse of the bull market, but those who profess to follow his operations closely were of the opinion that, while he was selling stocks actively, the break was by no means traceable to him.

Those interests stated that a group of professional floor traders together with combined resources of upward of $20,000,000 were influential in instigating the tremendous selling of the last few days.

CHICAGO STOCKS IN DEBACLE

The New York stock break became epidemic and in no time infected the floor of the Chicago stock exchange, which developed into a debacle. Excitement ran high and trading became the wildest in some time. The principal breaks occurred in issues listed in both the New York and Chicago markets. United Light and Power A common showed the greatest loss, opening at 112 1/2 in contrast to a previous close of 125, and selling down to 82 at the close, a net loss of 43 points. The B common lost 16 points to 140 and the new A common sold down 8 points to 18.

Auburn Automobile was the feature of spectacular trading, eight and ten point fluctuations, up and down, being registered between single sales. The low was 53 1/2, a loss of 18 points. The close was 64, a net drop for the day of 8 1/2.

GRAINS UNSTEADY

The slump in stocks in Wall street created an uneasy feeling in grains, cotton, and coffee in Chicago.

May wheat, in Chicago dropped to $1.16 1/2, July to $1.15, and September to $1.14 1/2, the latter reaching the lowest of the season. May and September corn and May and July oats were down to lower levels than heretofore this season.

It was a day of liquidation all around, with the belief that the largest holders had dropped out of the wheat market.

May corn touched 76 1/2 cents and finished 76 cents above that point. Oats touched 39 1/2 cents and rye 84 1/2 cents, with the finish at 85 1/2 cents. It was not a question of news but of technical market conditions that governed the sharp price fluctuations.

Corn is now selling in the west at prices that net farmers 40 to 45 cents.

Liquidation in coffee in New York carried prices for futures down 23 to 25 points, with the finish at the bottom.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—dark headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

ACQUIT BIMBA OF BLASPHEMY; FINED AS A RED

Brooklyn, Mass., March 2.—(Special.)—Anthony Bimba, communist editor of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrested a few weeks ago for violations of an ancient Massachusetts blasphemy law, was today freed of the charge of blasphemy, but was found guilty of making seditious utterances and was fined $100. He appeared and furnished $500 bail for trial by jury.

Massachusetts' nearest approach to a Dayton evolution trial began when a district court judge was called upon to determine whether Bimba, by denying God in a public meeting, committed blasphemy under the old Puritan statute. His seditious utterances were summed in alleged statements he made to a meeting of Lithuanians in which he said by the government witnesses to have urged the overthrow of government.

Judge C. C. King, who presided, issued a memorandum giving his reasons for his findings, in detail. He commented that the Lithuanian citizens of Brooklyn, where the trial was held, are "over cautious." "In their zeal, he said, they make use of the courts to settle disputes that they could better settle among themselves."

Judge King said that Bimba's speech was not designed to advise his listeners to become atheists and he would find regarding the seditious utterances. The judge said that some of Bimba's hearers were out to get him, that is to ask him questions that would get him to make expressions that would land him in court.

The judge found that the substance of Bimba's reply to a part of this heckling was that the red flag would wave over Washington, and over Korea.

"As a net result, I believe that Bimba did bring himself within the meaning of the seditious statute."

Heavy winds early yesterday morning ripped off a portion of the roof from the St. Francis Xavier school, 5th street and Linden avenue, Wilmette.

A large part of the debris fell into a large playground used by the 300 children who attend the institution. The Rev. Bernard Brady, the principal, said that if the roof had been blown off during school hours scores of pupils would have been endangered.

The roof will be repaired to permit the resumption of school tomorrow.

HAROLD BRADLEY STRIKERS DEFY VISITS CHICAGO; POLICE, BUT FLEE BACK IN DALLAS FIREMEN ATTACK

Passaic, N. J., March 2.—(Special.)—Tear bombs, a dozen mounted patrolmen, and 55 other policemen were unable to disperse a crowd of 2,000 rioting, jeering textile strikers near the Botany Worsted Mills late this afternoon. As a last resort five fire companies were summoned to the scene and the crowd was broken up with streams of water playing from powerful hoses in the hands of firemen and patrolmen.

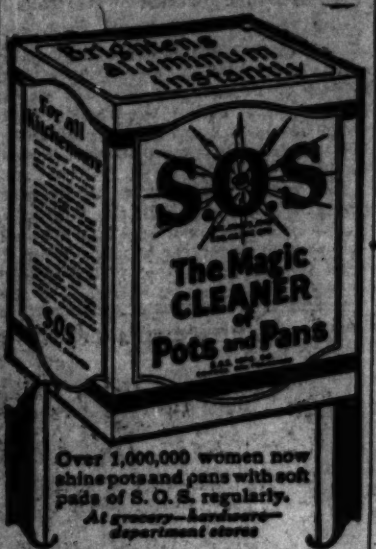

As the strikers fled in all directions they were followed by patrolmen with hand-held clubs, who beat those who attempted to reform small groups of picketers. Men, women, and children were knocked down in the melee. Hundreds were drenched to the skin, many were bruised, but only one arrest was made.

No prosecution ever was begun against Bradley by his numerous creditors, and what is believed to be the sole stumbling block against his return is an item of $4,000 in rents he is said to have collected and failed to turn over to the receiver of one of his defunct enterprises. One report is that the receiver will accept $3,000 as settlement.

SHANGHAI, March 2.—More than 5,000 Chinese laborers in the Japanese cotton mills are striking and are causing apprehension of a possible removal of the disastrous trouble of last year. GOOD NEWS Nine Extra Years of Life

HEALTH is improving—disease is decreasing—life is lengthening. You and your family have a better chance to live long and happily than people ever had before in the history of the world.

Splendid gains have been made in the United States and Canada within the last thirteen years. Stated in an insurance man's language, five years have been added to the average expectation of life.

But more encouraging—in the same period, nearly nine years were added to the life expectation of Metropolitan Industrial Policyholders—a gain, over the general average, of four extra years.

How was this done?—Largely through the inspiring work of our Metropolitan men and women. They sent trained nurses to the homes of millions of sick Policyholders. They fought disease and taught the well how to keep well.

Your Health in 1926

Use the helps offered by medical science to prevent disease. You need never fear typhoid. Inoculation will prevent it. Your children need never have diphtheria. Toxin-antitoxin treatments will safeguard them. Smallpox will not touch your family if all are vaccinated when necessary. One by one, dread diseases are being conquered. In ten years the tuberculosis death rate has been reduced more than one-half. Five years ago the diphtheria death rate alone was higher than that today for diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough combined.

Send for a Life Table

Have you ever seen the figures shown in Life Tables that tell the average life expectations for each age? While these tables may not apply to you individually, they do apply to the composite you—you and all the other tens of thousands at your age.

Send for a Life Table so that you may see how many years it allots to persons of your age. It will be mailed free on request together with a list of many free booklets prepared by the Metropolitan, covering the cause and prevention of almost every disease by which you are threatened.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company cordially invites all of its friends and neighbors to share and use the knowledge that is conquering disease and building longer, happier lives.

She died later at Hennrich Memorial hospital. Her skull was fractured and she was injured internally.

The driver, Raymond Kiewer, 190 North Leavitt street, was arrested.

James Williams, 5 years old, colored, died of internal injuries after he is believed to have run into a motor truck near his home.

The driver, William Wiebe, 1812 Prairie avenue, said he did not see the boy.

William Wiebe, 2325 Nelson street, a truck driver, who failed to report crossing over a 12 year old boy, was arrested by Lieut. Peter Tomcheck of the Sheffield avenue station.

Martin High, 2416 Fletcher street, the victim, was run over at Clybourn and Belmont avenues and probably fatally injured.

Wiebe was traced through a license number.

The boy was taken to the Marthe Washington hospital. While Wiebe was at the police station physician called for a volunteer to give the lad a blood transfusion.

William Wiebe, a brother of the automobile driver, went to the hospital and two pints of blood were taken from his veins. Following the operation physicians held a slight hope for the injured boy's recovery.

Mrs. Emma Edens, 28 years old, 1114 East Seventy-third street, was injured, possibly fatally, when she was struck by an automobile, the driver of which did not stop.

The accident occurred in Stewart avenue near West Sixty-third street. Mrs. Edens was taken to St. Bernard's hospital.

Street Sweeper Juddy Hurt, Francisco Polano, 19 years old, 909 South State street, a street sweeper employed by the city, was severely injured when run over by a motor bus at Randolph and State streets.

Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club, his wife, Mrs. Ella M. Hayes, and Miss Betty Brown, who were injured Nov. 27, 1929, when their automobile was struck by a car driven by Mrs. Eva Kennedy, yesterday filed personal injury suits against Mrs. Kennedy and her husband, Leslie L. Kennedy, totaling $137,000.

Trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad were involved in 366 accidents with automobiles last year, according to a report issued by the railroad yesterday. Of these accidents, the report states, 145 were caused when drivers crashed their cars into trains on crossings.

(Oslo, Norway, March 2.—President

Ivan Lykke of the storthing, leader of the conservatives, was received today by King Haakon, who asked him to form a new cabinet.

Prior to this meeting at the royal palace, the agrarians told the conservatives they were not willing to form a cabinet if the radicals did not take part also.

Therefore, the effort to unite the conservatives and agrarians, who together would have a majority in the storthing, has failed.

DAUGHTER GETS MILLION BY WILL OF WORTHINGTON

U. S. Prisoner Leaves Over $3,000,000.

John Worthington, world's champion confidence man, died yesterday in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga. His will, being made public, contained bequests of $2,000,000 to his daughter, Alice, and $1,000,000 to his attorney, Robert L. Cohan. The estate probably would amount to $3,000,000.

The will of La Salle street, as Worthington was called, had fought many years to avoid dying in the penitentiary. Last October, however, he returned to Chicago after a year or two in Mexico. He then said his purpose was "to make my will and go to jail."

The will was drawn then by Attorney Cohan who now is a candidate for Municipal judge in the Republican primary. Attorney Cohan had the will in his possession yesterday, the beneficiaries and the amounts being:

ALICE WORTHINGTON, his daughter, who is known in the movies as Jane Allen and whose married name is Mrs. Allen Pike, $2,000,000.

MRS. JOHN ROGERS, New Rochelle, N. Y., another daughter, $500,000.

HELEN ROGERS, granddaughter, $250,000.

ATTORNEY ROBERT L. COHAN, 15 North Clark street, $250,000.

The will then reads: "All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate I bequeath to my daughter Alice Worthington. The above to be paid out of the stocks, bonds and securities as per inventory."

Alice has the inventory. The inventory was not in his possession, Attorney Cohan said. Alice Worthington, who is out of the city, has it safely secured, he declared, and it may never be filed in court.

The will was without witnesses. Attorney Cohan said it was not desirable at the time to take any one into their confidence and that witnesses were not needed, because there will be no contest on the will. There may be claims against the estate, he admitted.

The will's estate is hidden so that claimants never can find any part of it to attach or to levy upon, the attorney said. John the Wolf, it is said, left no property that his creditors could seize.

And he had creditors by the bushel, others he called them.

If his estate were tangible it might be impounded by the courts for the protection of creditors. It was explained, but Wolf Worthington, who had lived by his wits for those many years, knew that as well as any one. Most of his money, it was understood, was in deposit in banks in foreign countries. Many drafts, signed by otherwise blank, were left in possession of Alice, the girl who stood by him during all his troubles.

Hard Road for Tax Gatherers. Whether the Wolf intended also to evade payment by his heirs of inheritance tax is only problematical, but it appeared yesterday that any tax gatherer would first have to find the estate.

Anything that was legitimate was the Wolf's racket. Outside of a few years spent in Sing Sing prison, while he was a youth he had managed to laugh at the law until it finally caught up to him.

There was an old charge of using the mails to defraud. It had lagged for six years, and he had forgotten it. Finally he was forced to trial. As he said afterwards, if he had spent $5,000 for a lawyer he would have been acquitted. Instead he had a $1,000 lawyer and was sentenced to prison. He appealed and appealed, ran away, but without avail.

VICTIM ADMITTED OF ROBBERY. When Frederick E. Reeling, 31-year-old, was found recently in the South Clark street cell on a charge of robbery. A cab driver tried to identify him after reading his arrest.

BARTLETT RANCH OF 350,000 ACRES TO BE SOLD FOR GAME CLUB

Negotiations are nearing completion for the sale of the 350,000 acre estate of the late William H. Bartlett in New Mexico to Harry J. Mallen, a Los Angeles investment broker, who plans to convert the property into a sportsmen's club.

Mr. Bartlett, who was one of the owners of the Bartlett-Frazier company, spent more than $1,000,000 improving the ranch, which is near Vermojo Park, N. M., fifty-three miles from Trinidad, Colo. Although trustees of the estate declined to discuss the price to be paid, it is assumed it will be considerably more than $2,000,000.

The ranch is well stocked with game and fish, and Mr. Mallen intends to have a limited membership club with an initial fee of $5,000. Stewart Edward White, author and big game hunter, is said to have tentatively accepted the presidency.

All the direct heirs of Mr. Bartlett are dead and practically all his estate belongs to the widow of W. H. Bartlett Jr., now Mrs. Virginia Douillon, of Santa Barbara, Cal.

FRANCE, SPAIN RALLY TROOPS TO CHECK RIFFIANS

TANGIER, March 2.—[U. P.]—Franco-Spanish forces everywhere in the Rifian fighting area are speeding preparations to meet Abd-el Krim whenever he may launch his next attack. Krim's brother has arrived at Tarquin near Chechaouen with a strong force to reinforce the Rifian posts at Beni Hozmap against the Spanish operations. Spanish soldiers plan an immediate attempt to destroy the Rifian guns on Djebel Zoun, which are menacing Tetuan. Abd-el Krim has sent 1,500 men against the Beni Mezaouer tribe, which submitted recently to Spain. The Spaniards have decided on an expedition against another tribe which returned to Krim after pledging loyalty to Spain.

Strike to Curb French. PARIS, March 2.—[U. P.]—Resuming his Moroccan warfare after a winter of idleness, Abd-el Krim and his Rifian tribesmen have struck a powerful blow against the French with the view of gaining the upper hand prior to possible reopening of peace negotiations.

Krim, in an attack today, aimed at control of the valley of the river Sebou, a tributary of the Ouergha, which is one of the few routes now open to transportation. Advancing into the territory of the Mitoua tribe, the Rifians attempted to prevent any French advance further north.

An official French communique admits Abd-el Krim's progress in his offensive against the French and Spanish armies. Gens. Boichut and Duffieux are said to have gone to Tounat, at the base of the sector comprising the invaded territory of the Mitoua tribe, in the hope of organizing a counter-offensive with native and French troops. The communique expresses the belief that this will begin immediately. Many airplanes are expected to be thrown into the fight.

Syrians Flee on Train. CAIRO, Egypt, March 2.—[U. P.]—Dispatches from Beirut, Syria, say that Damascus is completely encircled by barbed wire barriers. French artillery bombarded groups of rebels at Taida-Taida Sunday. The rebels are reported to have cut the Hedjaz railway line between Kesswah and Damascus, and to have fired on a train. The regular train from Haifa to Damascus was not running Sunday.

AUTO TAX CUT EFFECTIVE WITH DEALERS APRIL 1

Reduction Now Means Loss to Distributor.

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Automobile purchasers of Chicago cannot expect to benefit from the two per cent reduction in the federal excise tax on new passenger cars until about April 1. In the opinion of tax experts, although this levy reduction was voted Feb. 28.

Passenger car taxes, paid by the manufacturer to the government and subsequently made up by the manufacturer from the dealer and buying public, were reduced from 5 per cent to 3 per cent under provisions of the new tax law. But this reduction was not to be effective until one month from the day the bill was signed by President Coolidge.

According to a bulletin from the National Automobile Dealers' association, opinions vary on whether the term "one month" means the 15th of March, 28, thirty-one days after date, or thirty days after date. So many dealers are actually basing the reduction on the 15th of April.

The dealers' association pointed out in its bulletin that local sellers of cars who give their customers the benefit of the 2 per cent reduction before the effective date arrive must assume the tax loss themselves.

Nearly a third fewer hogs arrived yesterday than were expected, the total at 11,000 being smallest for Tuesday in five months. Light grades sold rather indifferently at 10@12.25 each, while other kinds advanced that much, which narrowed the price range considerably. Top dropped 25¢ at 11.75 for 140@150 lb average. General average price moved up 15¢ to 12.25, against 12.10 a week ago and 12.70 a year ago. The average price a year ago this week advanced to 12.10, while two years ago it was down to 12.25. Packers purchased indifferently yesterday, the Armour and Swift houses taking a combined total of less than 1,000. Most of the 8,000 carried over were held off the market. Today's receipts are estimated at only 14,000. A substantial cut in cattle receipts during the first two days of this week, coupled with an advanced estimate of only 5,000 for today against 11,181 the previous Wednesday, injected strength in the market, which maintained a firm basis throughout the session. Advances of 10¢25 were general, cattle bringing 12.00@12.25 indicating the most gain. Yearlings and steers averaged 12.00 and 1.43¢ lb reached 12.00, against a top for the week of 11.25, paid for 1.13 lb long yearlings. Good beef cattle sold within a 25¢ spread, against a 50¢ spread a month ago and 16.00 five months ago. Butcher stock held firm, a few 44 lb heifers selling at 16.00 and 1.47 lb cows up to 17.75. Canners and cutters remained unchanged. Calves advanced 25¢50. Stockers and feeders were strong.

Lamb Trade Strife.

Following a strong to 25¢ higher opening the market for fat lambs experienced a sharp reaction, closing 25¢50 under quotations in vogue at the start. Receipts at 15,000 carried a larger share at 10¢100 lb lambs, which suffered most in the price pounding after midseason. Bulk of 50@100 lb averages brought 11.50@12.25, with better grades of 80@95 lb lambs at 11.50@12.50 and three decks to city butchers at 11.25 early. Fancy yearlings filled a special order at 11.50, with good 35 lb averages at 11.10 and two year olds at 11.10. Old ewes sold down from 29.00. Dressed shearing lambs brought 11.25@11.35. Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 1,400 cattle, 14,000 hogs and 17,000 sheep, against 7,870 cattle, 14,553

Cotton values advanced lower and, while showing a fair advance early on short covering, and excellent selling on the home market, values fell to a few points below, and lower on futures were 10¢15 below, with Chicago leading. Spot had 5000 bales, with New York leading at 12.25, and New Orleans 12.15. Liverpool was lower early and reacted.

FIDELITY TRUST COMPANY, PHILADELPHIA, TRUSTEE

A Sinking Fund to retire by maturity all Bonds of this Series will be provided in the Mortgage

THE ISSUANCE OF THESE BONDS HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED BY GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITIES HAVING JURISDICTION

Mr. W. H. Johnson, President of the Company, has summarized as follows his letter to us describing these Bonds:

THE CONSUMING DEVELOPMENT

Philadelphia Electric Power Company and its Maryland subsidiary own a site near the mouth of the Susquehanna River on which they will build a hydro-electric power plant under a license issued by the Federal Power Commission. They will also build the necessary transmission lines to deliver power to the system of The Philadelphia Electric Company, which controls the stocks of both companies. Exceeding Niagara Falls, the initial development of approximately 300,000 hp. will be the largest hydro-electric development in the United States. It will deliver to The Philadelphia Electric Company additional power, which the increasing demand necessitates, at a large annual saving as compared to steam production and will also furnish power, as required, locally in Maryland. Provision will be made for an ultimate capacity of approximately 500,000 hp.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE

The proceeds of these $36,000,000 Bonds, which are part of the $38,000,000 Bonds of the 5 1/2% Series due 1972, will be applied toward the cost of the initial development, estimated at $52,230,000. The remaining $2,000,000 Bonds will be held by the Company and may be sold to provide additional funds, if required. Should $38,000,000 be more than 75% of the cost of the initial development, sufficient Bonds will be retired to establish that ratio. In no event can the Mortgage debt issued for the initial development exceed $38,000,000. The Philadelphia Electric Company has agreed to furnish the balance of the funds necessary to complete this initial development for which it will receive preferred and common stocks of Philadelphia Electric Power Company.

SECURITY

These Bonds will be direct obligations of Philadelphia Electric Power Company, unconditionally guaranteed by The Susquehanna Power Company, its Maryland subsidiary, and will be secured by their joint first mortgage on the new dam, power plant and transmission lines and on all real property of both companies now owned or hereafter acquired, including the leases mentioned below.

EARNINGS

The earnings will be derived from rentals. The property will be leased, for a term extending beyond the maturity of these Bonds, to The Philadelphia Electric Company and in part to its Maryland subsidiary whose undertakings it will unconditionally guarantee. The Philadelphia Electric Company will be responsible under these leases for the payment of net annual rentals equal to 7% of the cost of the development, subject to revision by the public authorities having jurisdiction. Such rentals, based on the estimated cost, will be over 1.7 times the annual interest charges on the $38,000,000 Bonds of the 5 1/2% Series due 1972. The excess of rentals over bond interest will provide the requirements of a sinking fund to retire all Bonds of this Series by maturity and, in addition, dividends on the preferred and common stocks to be issued by the Company.

THE PHILADELPHIA ELECTRIC COMPANY SYSTEM

The Philadelphia Electric Company, whose rental obligation secures the payment of interest and sinking fund on these Bonds, is one of the outstanding electric systems in the world. It does substantially all central station electric light and power business in Philadelphia, and in the important manufacturing district along the Delaware River southwest of Philadelphia, including the city of Chester. The Company has outstanding capital stock of $79,000,075 par value, with a market value, based on present quotations, of over $140,000,000. For 1933 its earnings available for dividends on its capital stock were over $7,000,000.

It Supplements, Not Supplants, the Credit Man

When a new ocean liner is built, it may be the last word in strength, power, efficiency, luxury. It may be so staunch and sturdy as to be proof against storms and dangers of almost every sort. Yet the owners would not for the world send that vessel out without a captain—without the most experienced, competent captain they could find.

So, in business, when a firm buys

Credit Insurance

as the last word in credit protection, it would not even think of operating without a credit captain—the Credit Manager.

In fact, the latter's soundest judgment, and his personal ability and experience, invariably help credit insurance to function at maximum efficiency. The Adopted Wife

By Amelia River
(Fictional Treatment)

SYNOPSIS.
Celia is left an orphan by the death of her father, who bequeaths her to the care of her mother, Hilary, one of his few friends. Hilary's sister, Laura, is a widow and she takes her home to live. Two years later Laura dies and Hilary is greatly distressed as to what to do about Celia. A young Russian sculptor proposes to her, but she declines his offer. Hilary tries to secure her late husband's estate.

INSTALLMENT IX. CELIA'S ABSURDITY.

Celia's glance and tone made Hilary think of a hare suddenly alert at dawn. She looked at her screen of brushwood.

"I mean Sergei Kirilenko, Celia. . . . He is one of the finest young fellows I know. . . . Gifted, sensitive, honorable, in every way. . . . If I had a daughter I'd ask nothing better for her than such a man as husband."

Celia was silent for what seemed to Hilary a long time, then she remarked in a neutral, natural tone:

"I've always thought 'husband' such a very ugly word."

Hilary looked at her keenly. Was she trying to be funny, in order to postpone the issue? Somehow he couldn't imagine Celia trying to be funny.

But what a queer way to answer his recommendation of Kirilenko!

So he smiled and said that he, too, didn't think the word husband particularly euphonious, but that what he wanted to talk to her about was the substance it represented and not the symbol itself.

"In fact, my dear," he concluded, "I had a letter from Kirilenko this morning. It is he makes you another proposal of marriage. Now don't speak too quickly!" he begged, as he saw her lips part.

Celia's lips closed obediently, and he went on to say not only a few but a great many things with some eloquence.

He would not have spoken so convincingly, of course, had he not believed what he was saying. When he stopped at last and asked anxiously:

"Well, Celia? . . . What am I to say to Kirilenko?"

"Please don't be angry with me. . . . but if you will so kindly, say I am sorry, but that I can't think of marrying him."

"But that's cruel, Celia! . . . to send him word that you can't even think of marrying him. . . . Why won't you say instead that you will think of it, and then more of him? I am sure that you'd change your mind if you saw more of him."

"No," said Celia with decision. "That would be cruel, because now I only don't want to marry him, but if I saw more of him I should dislike him."

"Dislike a man for loving you and wanting to marry you?" asked Hilary, in a reproachful tone.

"That is just what makes it so unpleasant. Besides, he doesn't really love me. He says that, but he only really loves his queer status. I look at him, so he imagines he loves me."

"Celia! How can you be so absurd?" cried Hilary, but he was glad the room was darkened, because he felt the blood rising into his face. There was just enough truth in what she said to make him feel uncomfortable.

"It isn't absurd. . . . It's true," said Celia calmly. "You must have noticed it, haven't you?"

"I certainly have not," he answered with some irritation. "You might say the same thing of any creature of a very tall woman."

Celia was silent.

"Haven't you any more weighty reason to give me for refusing even to consider his offer?" he inquired at last, trying to keep his irritation out of his voice this time.

"No," said Celia, "except . . ."

"Except that I don't want to marry any one. . . . She added firmly, before he could speak: "I dislike the idea of marriage."

"Do you mean you dislike it because you don't happen to like Kirilenko?" he asked.

"I dislike it in every way. I shall never marry."

"This, coming on top of last night's fruitless vigil, and her quenching of that ray of hope, quite exasperated him."

"You say that very coolly, my dear girl. Have you ever thought what you will do if you don't marry?"

"The quick glance showed surprise."

"I have money of my own. . . . See thousand dollars a year, you told me. . . . I can live on that."

"Really, you talk like a child!" exclaimed Hilary. "A girl of twenty can't live on that."

"But they do," said Celia.

Hilary quite lost his temper.

"You are not my ward," he returned sharply. "I have something to say to you, my dear, and I do not choose that you shall live alone."

"You're not accustomed to living in the way you'd have to, with only two thousand a year. You couldn't possibly pay for a companion out of that."

"I wouldn't mind," said she.

Good Morning!

Come now with joy and thanksgiving this hilarious comedy picture to Larry Semon with good things concerning him. At last he has a picture that is funny! And he not only plays in it but directed it himself!

"Stop, Look and Listen" is by far the best offering on the State-Lake program this week. It is speedy, efficient and resourceful. Built on the good old plot wherein the goofy small town youth falls for the manager of the stranded theatrical troupe in his attempt to rob the bank and escape with the money. It is a picture that is funny! And he not only plays in it but directed it himself!

Watching your favorite smile develop into an ear-to-ear grin, and eventually medicinal laughter shakes you. Nuff said.

South Shore Seeks Community Venus at Health Pageant

South Shore is in search of its community Venus. She must be from 16 to 25 years old, height 5 feet 4 inches; weight, 110 pounds; waist, 24 inches; arm, 12 1/2 inches; hips, 32 inches; and neck, 14 1/2 inches. When found she will be awarded a large silver trophy and a part as understudy to the leading lady in a musical comedy play in the loop.

Yesterday physicians and nurses at the South Shore Temple community house, 7215 Jeffery avenue, were busy weighing, measuring and examining young women from all over the south side who are competing during the three days' all community health pageant.

The pageant, which closes tomorrow night, has for its purpose primarily the encouragement of proper physical development for all members of the community, babies, children and adults. Besides the prize offered the most perfect young woman, banks have donated prizes of bank accounts for the ten most perfect babies, and tennis rackets and bicycles for the most perfect boys under twelve, and furniture for the most perfect adults.

The South Shore pageant is sponsored by the Englewood Business Men's association, South Shore Temple, and the Woodlawn Business Men's organization.

Dr. W. H. Beards is in charge of the medical department. Dr. D. J. Gordon of the dental, and Dr. L. H. Hedrick, the chiropodist. Dr. Herman Bunde, city commissioner of health, will be the judge of the pageant this evening on the subject, "Community Health Problems," after which there will be wrestling, boxing and basketball matches.

Painted Finger Nails

Newest Fad in Paris

PARIS, March 2.—Colored finger nails to the latest Paris fad. The vivid scarlet paints the manicures formerly applied are superseded by sparkling green, light blue, and enamel white.

CLOSEUPS

In her next picture, "The Man Who Sings," Anna Q. Nilsson will dress in men's clothes and turn a tramp in order to be near the man she loves. Much like the role she had in "Ponyo" seems like.

"Each new picture is to me a wonderful adventure," Adolph Menjou is quoted as saying. "Never suspect such enthusiasm from this portly, red-headed ultra-sophisticated, would you?"

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Elizabeth Miller, 5709 LaSalle street, was selected.

The Question.

Why are there so many bachelors and old maids today?

Where Asked.

South Dearborn street.

The Answer.

Mrs. Ruth Roberts, 7159 Normal avenue, secretary—The up-to-date girl is so busy with her work and her social life that she has no time to marry. Men have to think twice before asking girls to marry these days.

Charles Chapman, 1697 West Jackson boulevard, dental student—The young men have diversions enough in staying single. The real cause is the girls. The way they are carrying on, I have found that girls are not what they at first seem to be. Even a few years ago it was, stay at home; now it's a high fly dance or show.

Mrs. V. H. Starn, Green Day, W.J.A., housewife—The chances are it is the financial situation. Girls are earning so much money that married life doesn't appeal to them. The situations they hold and their large salaries seem to take the place of what we used to think of as the call of the home.

C. J. Van Doren, 418 South boulevard, Oak Park, real estate agent—Because so many have good sense, insufficient income, that is one sensible reason. Two many on both sides are too backward or too forward, flapper styles having no bearing on this. Further, women don't need the protection that they did in the pioneer days.

Miss Marion Sturm, 4390 Ellis avenue, secretary—The men are all right and I like them, but they prefer the flapper type of girl who is jolly and likes to dance. These girls are the ones who marry. Girls who do not keep the pace and get out and get acquainted haven't the same chance.

Work Rushed at Mundelein for June Fete

Preparations Made for Eucharistic Crowds.

Busy days are these at St. Mary of the Lake seminary at Mundelein, Ill., where carpenters, cement workers, bricklayers, landscape artists and laborers are working against time preparing the grounds for the influx of the thousands expected to attend the closing ceremonies of the eucharistic congress there on June 24.

By May 1 or shortly thereafter, according to the estimates of J. W. McCarthy, architect who is supervising the work, the 150 workers will be able to lay aside their tools and survey the result.

It will be well worth regarding, in the opinion of the architect. He cites particularly the five arched bridges of brick and cement, crossing the lake of St. Mary, the new $100,000 boat house, with its gracefully patterned pier, the smoothly rolling lawns, with neatly clipped shrubbery and flower gardens, the new design; the tier after tier of wide stone stairways, leading down from the Edward Hines memorial chapel, and the miles of winding roads, smoothly paved, that will form the route of the great procession which will officially close the congress.

The last mass of the congress is to be held in the chapel, and at its conclusion the ranks of the procession will form directly in front of the church to begin the three mile march about the grounds. Altars will be placed at intervals along the line, at which benediction will be given.

Although the program for the day has not been completed in detail, it is hoped to center a part of the ceremonies about the new pier, with the lake as a background, or perhaps to hold some of the services on a vessel on the lake itself, the congregation remaining on the shore.

A total of $100,000 is being expended on the improvements at the seminary, including the repairing and the paving of the road, the landscape work, and the erection of the bathhouse and pier.

Norma Shearer Stops for a Chicago Shiver

All dressed up for St. Patrick's day, with a green hat tilted over green-gray eyes, a chlo green sports suit, green morocco leather purse, and green silk stockings, Norma Shearer, diminutive screen star, was the spirit of spring yesterday, stopping over in Chicago from her way home from New York to Hollywood.

And John Gilbert, star of "The Merry Widow" and "The Big Parade," with long black hair curling around his ears and little black mustache, looked as though he were celebrating some holiday of southern Spain. But he explained that his own long hair took the place of a wig in "La Boheme," recently finished.

Miss Shearer was accompanied by her mother, sister, and sister-in-law. Others in the party were Irving Pichel, director of Metro-Goldwyn; Miss Henrietta Pichel; and Miss Sylvia Pichel, his mother and sister. Miss Marion Lee, scenario writer, and Ted Browning, director.

ALL-BRITISH PICTURE

(Copyright, 1926, by The New York Times.)

LONDON, March 2.—The film "Lionel Lincoln," which had its first regular performance tonight at the new American-built Picture Palace, delighted its audience with the various scenes, when it was performed before a specially invited audience including members of the British royal family. The English critics rejoice at its success because it seems to them to reveal the possibilities of British films in world competition. They are also greatly pleased at the fact that it has found among American producers.

STILLMAN AND DAVISON CLANS PART IN PARIS

James and Fifi to Loaf
Around Europe.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
PARIS, March 2.—After a big blow all around the Stillman and Davison clans are saying temporary farewells tonight, since the dowager Mrs. Davison, with her son, Henry P. Davison, and her daughter-in-law, Anne Davison, are leaving for home tomorrow on the Majestic.

James and Fifi Stillman were generally disappointed when they found the Davisons were unable to help them on their tour. Both, but especially Mrs. Stillman, wanted Anne, and Henry P. Davison as well, to accompany them to London and perhaps visit central Europe, but the young couple decided that they had to go in order to look after the new home they are building.

Visit Gladstone Stillman. The rehabilitation of the Stillman household was considered complete when Henry's mother actually came to the Hotel Lincoln to visit the reunited pair, a move which friends believed to have been mediated long before. The news seems to have been enjoying themselves immensely. Sunday night they took seats in the Casino de Paris, with supper afterwards to celebrate Anne's first wedding anniversary.

May Stay Several Months. Mrs. Stillman told The Tribune yesterday that they are going to loaf around Europe several weeks, without a thought of going home before, perhaps, several months.

Although Mrs. Stillman knows every line of the talk of psycho-analysis, she thinks there is some chance of staying until Prof. Jung, the famous psychoanalyst, or his co-worker, Dr. Baynes, return from South America.

Fashion Gives the Debutante a Ring

by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Are we casting aside pearls before pigs and especially after this one can't go so far as to say this, but certainly it is that during the last few weeks various fashionable debutantes have been abjuring that erstwhile inevitable string of pearls about the throat in favor of a brand new trinket: "Fashion has, in fact, given the debutante a ring." It is usually of gold, although sometimes silver is substituted for the more precious metal, and it is worn close about the throat. Also, it is sometimes matched by bracelets and earrings. Thus in this instance our model is wearing earrings made of three gold rings and several plain gold bracelets repeat the same theme. Take such touches of ornamentation in connection with the half drawn straight back from the forehead into the low knot at the back, and we have indicated a few of those minor distinctions which differentiate the fashion heroine of 1926 from her of 1925.

At this point, indeed, let me say a certain famous butterfly of fashion who occasionally lights near me has just come back from Paris to announce that many of the leaders in fashion have their short hair grow back to normality.

Aide from details, this white satin dress frock, taken from a current stage production, has some advice to offer. It is trimmed with groups of turquoise blue silk fringe and it announces the fact that fringe is going to be one of the vital trimming points of the spring. Observe the slanting line of the jumper and of the wrap-around skirt!

Profit in Chickens Is Last in Thoughts of Too Many Farmers

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Too many farmers keep chickens merely to decorate their farms. It is a tradition for farmers to keep chickens, and often they know little about the profits or losses of the birds. If wasteful methods were stopped, there would be an enormous surplus of eggs produced in this country. The country could get along with fewer chickens and there would be more profit for the poultry man if flocks were properly handled.

How profits differ and what others may expect of their flocks is indicated by records of the typical farmer's flock included in a study of 34,000 birds on 300 Indiana farms, made by E. D. Griffin, Purdue university.

A flock of 109 Rhode Island Reds averaged 58 eggs each a year; 66 per cent of all eggs set produced livable chicks, and only 43 per cent of all the chicks hatched were raised to maturity, returning $5.99, or 37 cents a bird for labor. Griffin says such egg production is low, hatching percentage fairly good, mortality of chicks uneasy, cost high, and labor returns unprofitable.

A second flock of 158 Plymouth Rocks averaged 100.6 eggs per bird; 64 per cent of the eggs set hatched; 81 per cent of the chicks were raised to maturity, returning $14.71, or $2.75 a bird for labor.

The third flock of 73 Plymouth Rocks averaged 145.6 eggs each; 61.5 of the eggs set hatched; 81 per cent of the chicks were raised to maturity, returning $37.23, or $5.23 a bird for labor. Griffin calls this excellent egg production, the hatching results normal, and the success in raising chicks of the highest order.
